CO-CURRICULAR GUIDE

AUTUMN TERM

SEPTEMBER — DECEMBER 2026

A co-curriculum complements learning in the academic curriculum to provide each student with a skill set that will support them into the future. A well-balanced combination of academic and co-curricular learning increases the willingness to take risk, develops social interaction, boosts confidence and enhances the development of leadership skills.

“The school’s motto, ‘Take part, get involved and try something new,’ is deeply embedded in its culture. Pupils engage in an exceptionally diverse and comprehensively planned ‘co-curricular’ programme. These include performing arts productions, an extensive range of sporting activities, trips, visits and fundraising for various charitable organisations. There is something for everyone”.

The Co-Curriculum

Why does it matter?

Our co-curriculum sits alongside academic learning to develop the whole student. It equips young people with the skills, confidence and experiences they need to thrive beyond the classroom.

A strong balance of academic and co-curricular opportunities helps students take risks, build relationships, grow in confidence and develop as leaders.

Why get involved?

- Build strong friendships – connect with students across year groups
- Boost confidence – try new things and step outside your comfort zone
- Discover your passions – from sport to arts to debate... there's something for everyone
- Experience success – shine in ways that go beyond the classroom
- Develop life skills – commitment, resilience and time management

Songwriting Circle

Creating Music and Compositions

Songwriting Club is a creative space for students interested in music, lyrics and expressing their ideas through song. Students will have the opportunity to explore different styles of songwriting, develop lyrics and melodies, and experiment with turning their ideas into original songs. No previous songwriting experience is needed — just an interest in music and a willingness to be creative.

Who can attend?

These activities are for all year groups. There is limited spaces available.

What day, time and location?

Tuesday lunch time, 1.30 – 2.00pm in the L14

Who do I speak to?

Visit Mr Willaims or a member of the music department to express your interest.

Claremont Choir

Claremont Choir brings together students who love to sing and perform as part of a group. Members will enjoy a wide variety of music while developing vocal skills, teamwork, and confidence on stage. No auditions are required — just a passion for singing and being part of something special.

Who can attend?

This activity is for all students.

What day, time and location?
