We have carefully considered and analysed the impact of this policy on equality and the possible implications for staff or pupils with protected characteristics, as part of our commitment to meet the Public Sector Equality Duty (PSED) requirement to have due regard to the need to eliminate discrimination, advance equality of opportunity and foster good relations.

By shading this box green, we, the policy holders, are confirming that we have read the Mat Equality Policy and the Equality Act 2010.

Chrysalis Multi Academy Trust complies with the below regulations regarding the retention and management of records.

Status: the policy itself is non-statutory but certain documents must be retained under Acts of Parliament or regulations. Academies have additional responsibilities for the retention of documents under the Companies Act 2006 and Charities Act 2011 (see additional statements within the policy document).

This policy should be read in conjunction with the following documents:

- Data protection policy.
- Freedom of information – publication scheme.

MANAGEMENT AND RETENTION OF RECORDS POLICY

Introduction

The GDPR makes it clear that records should be kept for no longer than necessary. This means that schools managers need to be aware of how long each type of record needs to be retained in law, where it might be judicious to retain records for a longer period, and how to destroy records that are no longer needed. Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000, schools are required to maintain a retention schedule listing the record series which the schools create in the course of its business. The retention schedule lays down the length of time for which the record needs to be maintained and the action which is taken when it is of no further administrative use (what is destroyed, when it was destroyed and by whom).

This policy is based upon the policy recommended by the Records Management Society for maintained schools in England. Claremont High School Academy and Sudbury Primary School recognise that the efficient management of its records is necessary to comply with its legal and regulatory obligations and to contribute to the effective overall management of the organisation and that produced by Buzzacott LLP for compliance with the Charity Commission's requirements. This document provides the policy framework through which this effective management can be achieved and audited.

Objectives and targets

This policy applies to all records created, received or maintained by staff of the schools in the course of carrying out its functions. This policy also applies to all accounting records required for retention by the Charity Commission under the Charities Act 2011 and under the Companies Act 2006, as well as those records required by HMRC and others to be retained. Records are defined as all those documents which facilitate the business carried out by the schools and which are thereafter retained (for a set period) to provide evidence of its transactions or activities. These records may be created, received or maintained in hard copy or electronically.

A small percentage of the school's records will be selected for permanent preservation as part of the school's archives and for historical research.

The schools keep records under a wide variety of headings:

- Child protection.
- Governors.
- Management.
- Pupils.
- Curriculum.
- Personnel records of staff.
- Health and safety.
- Administration.
- Finance.
- Property.
- School meals.
- DFE, local authority (LA), work experience and careers, family liaison.

The schools have a corporate responsibility to maintain these records and record keeping systems in accordance with the regulatory environment. The person with overall responsibility for this policy is the Executive Headteacher. The person responsible for records management in the schools will give guidance for good records management practice and will promote compliance with this policy so that information will be retrieved easily, appropriately and in a timely fashion. Members of staff are expected to manage their current record keeping using the retention schedule and to take account of the different kinds of retention periods when they are creating new record keeping systems. The guidelines follow those set out in the Information Management Toolkit for Academies (updated in 2019), and can be found on the Information and Records Management Society's website or by following the below link:

2019 IMRS Schools (Academies) Toolkit

Additional guidelines specifically for academies, which have financial reporting responsibilities under the Companies Act 2006 and to the Charity Commission, are also followed and are set out in the Charity Commission's guidance document 'Retention of accounting records' produced by Buzzacott LLP: Retention-of-Account-Updated-2016-2017 . Further guidance has been issued by the DFE in their Data Protection Toolkit for schools.

The school's data retention schedule is based on the guidance from IRMS and can be found in Annex 1

Archives

Old accounting and personnel records, and some other records, will be archived until being disposed of. Archived records will:

- Be treated as being as confidential as current records.
- Not necessarily be as accessible as current records but will still be retrievable.
- Have adequate storage made available or may be kept electronically or on microfilm.

Before deciding on whether records will be stored electronically or on microfilm the schools will consider:

- Whether the records may need to be kept in the original format (for legal reasons).

- Whether the medium chosen to archive the records has an acceptable lifespan for records that will have to be retained for a very long time.

- Where records are archived electronically or on microfilm, whether they will have an adequate means for accessing and printing the record.

A record of all documents that have been archived electronically or on microfilm will be kept.

Disposal of records
When the period of retention has expired, and there is no other reason to keep them, the records may be disposed of. The records will be completely destroyed by shredding paper, cutting up CDs and similar items and dismantling and destroying hard drives. Non-sensitive papers will be bundled and disposed of to a wastepaper recycling merchant. A list is kept of records which have been destroyed. This list includes:

- The file reference.

- The file title or a brief description.

- The number of files and date range.

- The name of the authorising officer

- The date the file was destroyed.

Monitoring and evaluation

This policy has been drawn up within the context of the Freedom of information policy, the GDPR and with other legislation or regulations (including audit, equal opportunities and ethics) affecting the schools and will be monitored to ensure that the retention guidelines updated by the Records Management Society periodically are adhered to. In addition, the schools within the MAT, recognises the specific requirements for retention of accounting records by the Charity Commission, HMRC and under the Companies Act 2006 and will therefore monitor the guidelines as recommended by the Charity Commission in the document ‘Retention of Accounting Records’.

Reviewing

The governing body is responsible for the maintenance of this policy and will review it bi-annually in the light of recommendations and any changes made by the Information and Records Management Society and the Charity Commission.

Next MAT review date: September 2026
